

*Education is not the learning of facts
but the training of the minds to think.*

Albert Einstein

The principal objectives of the Institute as set out in its Memorandum are:

- To organise training and research in the use and development of media, mass communication with special reference to the requirements of socio-economic growth in the country.
- To provide training to the Information and Publicity personnel of Central and State Governments; to make available facilities for training and research to meet the information and publicity needs of the public and private sector industries.
- To arrange lectures, seminars and symposia on problems related to mass communication, information and publicity in collaboration with universities, educational and research institutions as well as trade and industry.
- To organise refresher courses and workshops and invite mass communication experts and research scholars from within the country and abroad for delivering lectures.

Course Objectives

- To provide basic and emerging concepts and principles in relation to better decision making in the areas of advertising & allied fields, public relations, government & corporate communication.
- To enable the students to integrate various functions with organizational goals and strategies.
- To sensitize students on various gender/ social communication issues in the light of emerging concepts.
- To provide hands-on training on planning and production of brand and social campaigns.

To provide skills on various relevant software especially in Media Planning and production of campaigns Introduction

1. The program will commence on 1 August, 2018, and conclude on May 31, 2019. The academic session will be divided into two semesters, followed by industry attachment for a period of one month in May 2019.
2. In the first term (August-December) elements and concepts of various papers will be taken up along with practical/field work wherever required. In this term major emphasis will be on conceptual inputs.
3. In the second term (January – May) students will be working individually and in groups to learn hands-on-skills in various areas of the curriculum. The term also includes one-month industry attachment.
 - a) Project Study: Under the Paper X viz Advertising, PR & Marketing Research, the students will learn various research techniques and methodologies. Based on their interest and aptitude, they will be required to identify a subject from any one area of the course curriculum and work on a Research Project Study. The students will be adjudged on the basis of the application of research, gathering on insights and presentation of the Project Study.
 - b) Group Campaign: The class for this is divided into small groups and briefed to suggest an area of their interest for a 360 degree campaign planning and production. The aim is to synergise the learning of various papers. The students work from client brief to production of campaign that broadly includes research to gather consumer insights, development of creatives, media plans, suggest PR strategies, media engagement to budgeting and production. Clients are involved at all stages of campaign work. Ad/PR agency environment within the group is encouraged to enable students to work on areas of their aptitude and interest. An effort is made to make the students understand group dynamics and team effort. The campaigns are presented to a galaxy of industry experts and concerned client organization for evaluation.

4. Attachment: To relate the concepts with practice, the students will look for attachments to advertising agencies/public relations consultancies/government/corporate sector/NGOs, in the month of May 2019.
5. A fair balance of theoretical input and practicals has been maintained in the teaching of the Course.
6. Social relevance of Advertising and Public Relations has been given due weightage. Apart from preparing full campaigns on social issues, relevant segments have been included in the papers on marketing, public relations and advertising to sensitize the students about social responsibilities of advertising and public relations practitioners. Special emphasis will be given on gender sensitivity in communication.
7. In examination and evaluation, a certain proportion of the total marks will be assigned to external faculty experts.
8. The students are advised to learn the use of computer, various software, including multi-media and internet during their stay at the Institute.
9. The institute is Wi-Fi enabled.
10. While the institute has computer labs and limited number of still and video cameras which can be used by students, those who can afford, are encouraged to have their personal laptops and professional digital camera.
11. The institute has the best library in the country in the field of Mass Communication. Students are encouraged to visit library regularly in their free time and in the periods assigned for library work.
12. The syllabus reflects SUGGESTED READINGS under various papers.
